

A CLIFFSIDE HISTORICAL SOCIETY GATHERING

Friday, October 12 - 7:30 p.m.
at Cliffside Baptist Fellowship Hall

A great start... to the Cliffside day weekend!

Learn more about the town and its people, and about our efforts to preserve their history. Speakers will delight you with tales of long ago. And you may win one of a long list of door prizes. After the “official” program, all are invited to remain in the hall to meet new and old friends, and share your Cliffside experiences.

The official speakers include:

Senator Walter Dalton - He represents Cliffside in the N. C. Senate, and is a candidate for Lt. Governor. The grandson of Walter and Elizabeth McFalls Haynes, he'll have stories of his grandparents and their impact on Cliffside.

Dr. Jack Hunt - For decades he was one of Cliffside's dentists. Now living in Lattimore and still active in business, Dr. Hunt spent years as a representative in the N. C. House, and for several sessions of the legislature served as Speaker. He has fond memories of his life here.

There are a number of terrific door prizes, including:

- A set of prints of four Cliffside drawings by Henry V. Davis III
- An 11”x14” aerial photo of downtown made in the late ‘50s by Roy Lee Harris
- A 1942 map of Cliffside, 18”x24”, mounted, showing all buildings and homes
- A newly-designed “Remember Cliffside” tee shirt
- Two copies of the book Cliffside: Portrait of a Carolina Mill Town
- Five sets of five 8”x10” color photos of Cliffside landmarks made in 2003
- And valuable gift certificates from many area businesses
